INTRODUCTION

Volume One of this work covers available registers for churches in the southern portion of the county, below a line drawn from a point just below the city of York through a point just north of Hanover (roughly south of the old Monocacy Road). In this volume are births, marriages and deaths for the following churches: Friedensaal (White); St. Peter's (Yellow) Reformed; St. Jacob's (Stone) Union; Lischy's (St. Peter's); Steltz Union (Bethlehem); Emanuel Reformed in Hanover; St. Paul's (Ziegler's) Lutheran; Fissel's (Jerusalem) Union; Saddler's (St. John's) Lutheran; Sherman's (St. David's) Union; St. Matthew's Lutheran; Stehli's (St. Luke's) Union; Guinston (Muddy Creek) Presbyterian.

Volume Two covers the vital records of the following churches of the city of York: First Moravian; First Reformed and Trinity First Reformed Church; St. John's Episcopal; Christ Evangelical Lutheran; York Monthly Meeting (Quaker); and the private records of Reverend Goering and Reverend Thomas Barton.

Volume Three contains births, marriages and deaths of the following churches: Kreutz Creek Lutheran and Reformed; Blymir's Union; Warrington Monthly Meeting (Quaker); Strayer's Reformed and Lutheran; Canadochly Union; Wolf's Reformed; Quickel's Lutheran and Reformed - Plus private journals of John Casper Stoever, Jacob Lischy, John Cuthbertson and Robert Cathcart.

USING THE RECORDS

All births through 31 December 1800 were copied, regardless of the date of the baptism. The order of the records usually reflects the order of the "original" from which the transcriber worked. If the date of the baptism was not recorded one can guess that the event might have occurred sometime between the baptisms appearing before and after the given entry.

In using the records of this book it helps to realize the condition in which the transcriber found the records, difficulties in reading the handwriting, peculiarities in translating German and Latin to English and other factors. In addition some confusion arose in transcriptions as to which of the names referred to the sponsors (god parents in the case of baptisms) and which of the names referred to the parents. These types of errors were created when some of the ministers changed the order of recording sponsors and parents. In comparing the transcriptions we found few variances. We have annotated some of the entries to show these differences.

In most instances the spelling of personal names was retained in the translations. In attempting to find a name one must consider that inconsistent variations in the spelling of German

York County churches for which records of baptism, marriage and funerals exist for the 1700s.
